

Monday Evening
Dear Edna:-

---

Papa has written the news so I will add a few lines and sign my name or make the marks. I intended to write yesterday but really did not find the time. I was very busy most of the day and was up at stroke of seven in the morning. We had company nearly all day and evening. To day is the beginning of 1906. and 1905 is past and very little I can recall that I have been a benefit to
